HOLD MY BABY.

By Hal E. Roach. ✓

A writer on the care of babies is riding in a pullman car. A sorrowing mother, alone in the world, leaves her infant in his berth. He tries to give it away, but no one will take the child so he is forced to adopt him. He really has no knowledge of babies and his attempts to care for him, get him into many difficulties. He finally meets a young lady who knows about them and so they finally decide to get married as the only solution of the problem.
